

Cultivate a leader equity vision

1. Creating possibilities for productive conversations.
- 2.

"Liberated relationships are one of the ways we actually create abundant justice, the understanding that there is enough attention, care, resource, and connection for all of us to access belonging, to be in our dignity, and to be safe in community."

ADRIENNE MAREE BROWN,
PLEASURE ACTIVISM

See you again soon!

Questions for next time:

1. How do you prepare to lead with intentionality going into the summer and next school year?
2. What can you do to be a healing-entered leader (Ginwright, 2018)?

To read:

1. <https://ginwright.medium.com/the-future-of-healing-shifting-from-trauma-informed-care-to-healing-centered-engagement-634f557ce69c>
2. <https://drceciliacardesa.com/blog/healingcenteredengagement?rq=ravitch>

