

How did this happen?

As health care professionals, we know that patients die.

But some deaths are preventable, foreseeable.

RESEARCH SHOWS THAT 80% OF THE DEATHS OF BLACK BIRTHING PEOPLE ARE PREVENTABLE.

The maternal death rates for Black birthing people are almost 3x that of white birthing people.

