Joe Kent Raises $468K in the Third Quarter, Breaks $1 Million Total

Battle Ground, WA –Federal Election Commission reports released this weekend detailing fundraising for the third quarter of 2023 revealed:

- Joe Kent raised a total of $468,485.89 from July through September. This includes $459,189.44 raised by the Joe Kent Victory Fund and $9296.45 raised directly into Joe Kent for Congress.
- Since launching his campaign in January to defeat Marie Perez, Joe has raised a total of $1,075,527.03 into his Victory Fund and his Campaign Committee.
- The Joe Kent Victory Fund is a joint fundraising committee that includes Joe Kent for Congress, KENT PAC, and the Washington State Republican Party, all dedicated to helping Joe Kent win.
- Joe Kent has been endorsed by the Washington State Republican Party and the county parties in Clark, Cowlitz, Lewis, Skamania, Thurston, and Wahkiakum Counties.

Joe made the following statement:

I'm grateful to our thousands of donors in the district and beyond who believe in this campaign to defeat the most vulnerable Democrat in Congress. We lost this seat last time due to infighting among Republicans, so it's encouraging to see donors, volunteers, and voters rally to our cause.
